MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Sidney Kilmartin appeals from a judgment of the trial court (Portland, Woodman, J.) ordering his divorce from Debbie Kilmartin, disposing of the marital property pursuant to a decree of judicial separation incorporating the couple's separation agreement, and awarding Sidney exclusive ownership of the property at 38 Elderberry Lane in Windham. Contrary to Sidney's contentions, the court did not commit any procedural errors related to discovery, prehearing conferences, or prehearing motions that prejudiced him or offended due process. See Desmond v. Desmond, 2012 ME 77, ¶ 19, 45 A.3d 701. Sidney's other claims attempting to collaterally contest the validity of the property division under the separation agreement and judicial separation decree were properly rejected by the court. 19-A M.R.S. § 851(12)(C) (2022) (upon entry of a final divorce judgment, the portion of the separation decree disposing of the parties' property remains in full force); cf. Wanner v. Wanner, 2011 ME 12, ¶¶ 17-18, 12 A.3d 58.
