MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Jacquelyn M. Scott appeals from the judgment of the District Court (Houlton, Griffiths, J.) amending the parties' divorce judgment by granting Scott's former husband, Timothy E. Quint, sole parental rights and responsibilities as to their minor child, and limiting Scott's visitation rights. Contrary to Scott's contentions on appeal, the District Court did not err in adopting verbatim Quint's proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. See Estate of Record, 534 A.2d 1319, 1323 (Me. 1987). We have scrutinized the findings closely, and they are adequately supported by the record and adequately indicate the basis of the court's ultimate conclusion. See In re Sabrina M., 460 A.2d 1009, 1013 (Me. 1983). Scott waived her right to object to the judgment on a theory of judicial bias by failing to make a timely motion. See MacCormick v. MacCormick, 513 A.2d 266, 267 (Me. 1986). Finally, in limiting Scott's presentation of evidence, the court acted within its discretion pursuant to M.R. Evid 403 and 611(a) and did not deprive Scott of her right to a fair trial. See Dolliver v. Dolliver, 2001 ME 144, ¶ 10, 782 A.2d 316, 317; State v. Cooper, 617 A.2d 1011, 1015 (Me. 1992).

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.
