

STATE OF MAINE

v.

CHARLES PARENT

Submitted on Briefs December 13, 2002

Decided December 24, 2002

Panel: SAUFLEY, C.J., and CLIFFORD, RUDMAN, DANA, ALEXANDER, CALKINS, and LEVY, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Charles Parent appeals from a judgment of the Superior Court (Cumberland County, Humphrey, J.) entered after a plea of nolo contendere on a charge of operating a motor vehicle after habitual offender revocation, 29-A M.R.S.A. § 2557(1) (Supp. 2001). By pleading nolo contendere to this charge, Parent left his challenge to Maine's Habitual Offender Statutes unpreserved. See State v. Thornton, 485 A.2d 952, 953 (Me. 1984).<sup>1</sup>

The entry is:

Appeal dismissed.

---

<sup>1</sup> Had Parent entered a conditional guilty plea pursuant to M.R. Crim. P. 11(a)(2), he would have preserved his right to appellate review of the Superior Court's judgment.

Attorneys for State:

Stephanie Anderson, District Attorney
Julia Sheridan, Asst. Dist. Atty.
142 Federal Street
Portland, ME 04101

Attorney for defendant:

Henry I. Shanoski, Esq.
P O Box 369
Portland, ME 04112